

May 9 – 11th, 2014 Montreal CCUS Institute Conference

Section co-ordinator: Dr Catherine Nix

Title of Section:

Educators' Symposium: How to Integrate Bedside Ultrasound into Undergraduate & Postgraduate programs

May 9th at Hôpital Santa Cabrini, Montreal

Program

08.00 – 08.15	Introduction Peter Steinmetz & Catherine Nix
08.15 – 09.00	US Fellowship programs: Michael Woo – Emergency medicine US fellowship set up Alberto Goffi – Critical Care US fellowship set up
09.00 – 10.00	US Undergraduate programs – different approaches: Peter Steinmetz – Senior Faculty (McGill model) Catherine Nix & Samantha Arora – Junior Faculty (Toronto model) Jennifer Cotton – Medical Students (Kentucky)
10.00 – 10.20	Coffee
10:20 – 11:30	Oral presentations/Workshop US Educator presentations in association with the McGill US Symposium – Peter Steinmetz, Reuben Ostrofsky & Catherine Nix Shooting & editing educational videos – Mike Stone (Info on downloading, storing and editing US clips included in both sessions)
11.30 – 12:30	Educational Tools Matthew Koff - Teaching TTE to critical care fellows: Beaulieu vs SonoSIM Mike Stone - Podcasts, Youtube, Vimeo, Websites & #FOAMed Yanick Beaulieu – “ Reacts ”...the international interactive preceptorship software program of the future?